

Your Conference Assessment at Work

- Support for Youth and Young Adult Ministry in London Conference: 128 at Youth Forum, 26 Young Adults in Transition (YATS), Youth and Young Adult Network
- Support and oversight of 9 London Conference Camps & Outdoor Ministries and one day camp. 100s of kids will discover that United Church camps believe in them and the young adults they are becoming.
- Support to congregations through consultation, training and visioning.
- Partnerships with Overseas Ministries through Overseas Personnel – through the Hope Book we are responsible for 209 medicinal gardens, helping 60,000 people deal with HIV-Aids. Creating the Hope Book; setting up administrative procedures; teaming with all of our pastoral charges
- Conference Administration Staff available for questions and concerns and referring calls.
- Pastoral Relations matters processed – warrants, calls, appointments, availability lists of Congregations and Ministry Personnel
- Ongoing support by the Conference Personnel Minister for Ministry Personnel and Congregations
- Ongoing support of the Executive Secretary around all issues of the Manual, Appeals, and support around closures and amalgamations.
- Continuing to keep the Conference aware of issues of Stewardship and Justice.
- Support to committees and Divisions to do the ministry and mission of London Conference.
- Oversight around the planning and implementing of the Annual Meeting of Conference
- Ongoing support to Presbyteries, through attendance at Executive meetings, meetings of Presbytery, gatherings with Congregations, working with committees, and offering workshops
- Video/DVD licensing for a minimal charge because the Conference office does the processing. Cost is $1.07 per person based on average Sunday attendance rather than $700 per congregation.
- Information and processing of National grants and loans
- Helping people connect to people, web-sites and information that is helpful to the life of the congregation
- Assisting congregational treasurers fill out charitable returns
- Providing for the preservation of the historically significant records of the Conference - Archives
- Overseeing Incorporated Ministries of London Conference
- Supporting ministries at the Education Centres and General Council gatherings
- Supporting and planning ongoing events such as CanLead, the Dr. Callahan Event and other workshops and conferences

These are some of the ways that the Conference Assessment is at work.
